

ST. LOUIS CATHEDRAL AND JACKSON MONUMENT

As seen from New Orleans' Jackson Square. The St. Louis Cathedral, one of the most noted landmarks in North America, was erected in 1794. The Jackson Monument, unveiled in 1856, is outstanding in that the sculptor struck a perfect balance, and the entire weight of the statue rests only on the hind legs of the horse.

Color photo by Grant L. Robertson

NEW ORLEANS

CITY OF ENCHANTMENT

GLR-371

address

place stamp here

MIRRO-KROME © CARD BY H. S. CROCKER CO., INC., SAN FRANCISCO 94103